

ST JOSEPH'S NEWS

WEEK 8, TERM 3, 2024

This Week at Joeys

Dear parents,
The Joeys' school community has been really soaking up the Book and Wellbeing Week mood this week with lots of relaxing and enjoyable activities to highlight the welfare of everyone and the 'Reading is Magic' vibes associated with the two special occasions in the term calendar.

One of the highlights was the Book Week Parade this morning. It is always so much fun seeing the children in costumes of beloved characters from their favourite books. This is one way of fostering the love and importance of reading.

We read for entertainment, knowledge, emotional connection, mental stimulation and for relaxation. If you haven't done so already, take the time to share with your children what your favourite books were when you were their age!

We are finishing off the week with absolute positivity and compassion, with R U OK? Day being the focus tomorrow. These conversations are so important to have with others in our community and we hope it gives everyone the impetus to reach out to others that might be needing a friendly face or kind word.

Acting Principal

Good luck Isla & Archie!

We are incredibly proud of them both.
Good luck!

Band Day at Mater Maria

Last week, our school Band joined other local school bands for a very special day at Mater Maria. The high school students and teachers acted as mentors for our students. They also had the chance to play together as a large group. Our amazing music program director Kellye was there, along with our Band conductor Monique.

This was such a special and collaborative day and our students finished the day feeling very inspired! If you'd like your child to have the opportunity to learn an instrument via our specialist program and join the band, please see the flyer below.

You can watch a short video of the day on our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Manly NRL Visit

They answered a million questions, signed a billion autographs and their visit caused a LOT of excitement among our Joeys! Last week, we were treated to a visit from NRL superstars Jake, Tom and Ben Trbojevic from the Manly Sea Eagles. They presented our school with a $500 sports equipment voucher, to say thanks for supporting our local club this season! How good. GO Manly!
