

ST JOSEPH'S NEWS

WEEK 4, TERM 4, 2024

This Week at Joeys

Dear parents,

Musical practice is heating up! Our students are really excited about this and are working hard to put together a beautiful show for you. We're excited about the night – but make sure you don't miss out on tickets!

Our second Kindy 2025 Transition session wrapped up on Wednesday, with Year 5 meeting their future buddies. We have a class of 30 getting ready for next year with one session to go. We are pleased to announce that Miss Tegan Greig will be the Kinder teacher for 2025. Other class teachers will be announced later in the term, as per our usual practice.

We've had two reported cases of whooping cough and been advised it is more broadly in the community. We'd encourage you to read the fact sheet below and please don't send your child to school if they're unwell. Whooping cough: Fact sheet from NSW Health

Let's all look out for each other and stay healthy, happy and well in the lead up to Christmas!

Musical Tickets & Costumes

Have you locked in your tickets for the musical yet? Check Compass for all the details about the night, including the link to buy. We're thrilled to be able to accommodate more parents and family members this year, as it will be hosted at Mater Maria's auditorium.

Tomorrow your child will bring home a note with all the details for their costume too. We'd appreciate you keeping an eye out for it!

Parking & Road Changes

Council has proposed a lot of changes for the parking, road conditions and Kiss n Ride around our school. We worked with them to share our priorities and challenges but now is the time for you as individuals to share your sentiments to what they're suggesting too (including positive reinforcement for some of the ideas). You can look at the plans via the link below.

It includes proposed changes like:

- Raised pedestrian crossing in Ocean Street
- Kiss n Ride changing to Ocean Street
- Wellington Street becoming one way from the school corner
- New roundabout on Wellington and Lagoon Street

-Extended and additional 40 zones

-Extra parking on Wellington Street

Submissions from individuals are open until November 24th.
